

2005 Fred Wiche Award Adult Recipient

Dale Cashon

2005 Adult Division

Dale Cashon has been the volunteer landscape leader for Habitat for Humanity Louisville for more than seven years. He is a master gardener and shares his talent and expertise with our community via volunteer service to Habitat. Every year, Dale recruits, trains and supervises landscape crews and crew leaders at Habitat. He secured plant and landscaping material donations, creates easy-to-follow landscape maintenance plans for the new homeowners and is encouraging to Habitat partner families.

Dale Cashon leads volunteer crews who develop landscaping for new Habitat for Humanity homes.

